

The Campaign for

College Opportunity

ABOUT US

The Campaign for College Opportunity is a nonprofit (501(c) (3) organization devoted to ensuring that the next generation of college-age students in California has the chance to go to college as promised by the state's 1960 Master Plan for Higher Education. The co-founders of the Campaign are the California Business Roundtable, the Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund (MALDEF) and the Community College League of California. Abdi Soltani serves as the Campaign's Executive Director. The Campaign would not be possible without financial support from a number of institutions, including the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, James Irvine Foundation, David and Lucile Packard Foundation, Ford Foundation, Community College League of California, California Business Roundtable, Levi Strauss Foundation, Rockefeller Foundation, California Wellness Foundation, Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, the Education Financing Foundation of California, Southern California Edison, State Farm Insurance, the College Board and many other individuals and organizations.
